

Confirmation

2017-2018

Confirmation preparation in the Diocese of Rochester is a two year program. Candidates for confirmation need to be in faith formation in either the parish or a catholic school from 7th through 9th grades. With successful completion of 7th grade year the candidate may start preparation for confirmation in the 8th grade while participating in faith formation. With successful completion of 8th grade the candidate may begin year two of study in 9th grade. With the successful completion of 9th grade the candidate will be presented to the bishop for reception of the sacrament!
