Aprecio de los Mayores de Edad

Cada persona, no importa su edad, merece respeto y buen trato. En nuestros tiempos se habla mucho de bullying en la escuela. No es solamente en las escuelas que esto pasa. Muchas veces el bullying se dirige a los mayores de edad porque los blancos de los que intimidan son los más débiles o frágiles—los que no pueden defenderse bien.

Todos deseamos recibir de la otra persona un respeto y un reconocimiento de nuestra dignidad, y que otros usen un lenguaje correcto con nosotros. Quizás en los tiempos pasados fuera necesario empoderar a las personas mayores en la sociedad, pero hoy en día muchas veces son los mayores que inician proyectos y estimulan cambios, y, siendo líderes, ayudan a los menores ver situaciones de otra perspectiva. No todos tienen demencia o pobre salud. No es necesario que sepan de toda la tecnología más moderna. La sabiduría que viene de las experiencias vividas es más importante que saber cómo usar un drone o un aparato recién inventado o entender el argot moderno... Puede ser que la parte física empiece a deteriorarse, pero la mente se mantiene y puede ser mucho mejor que la de alguien más joven. Una edad más joven no significa una mente mejor.

Con el paso de los años vamos adaptándonos a los cambios. Los adultos jóvenes tienen que aprender manejar su dinero, tomar responsabilidad de un trabajo, de formar una familia, y después del paso de los años viene el gozo de ser abuelos y bisabuelos, de compartir el pasado con los más jóvenes, y de desarrollar una relación más profunda con Dios. Para algunas personas es difícil adaptarse; para todos nosotros tenemos que estimular la curiosidad por estudiar, por leer, por caminar, por conversar con otros, por investigar áreas nuevas. Los sexagenarios que están jubilándose tienen que mantener alerta la curiosidad. La tecnología puede apagar la curiosidad y el desarrollo de arte, poesía, música, teatro... Los sexagenarios no necesariamente son abuelos cojeando y usando un bastón, y con el pelo en un moño; no son ancianos o viejos. Muchos son muy activos y por eso no debemos meter a todos 60+ años de edad en un estereotipo. Activo o inactivo, con apariencia juvenil o de un viejo son individuos con personalidades propias y estilos de vida diferentes, y hay que respetarlos, escucharlos, valorarlos, apreciarlos y aprender de ellos. No debemos pensar para ellos ni ser paternalistas o discriminatorias. Con la edad y la experiencia de la vida, viene la sabiduría y sería bueno abrirnos a ella y escuchar.

FAMILY MINISTRY

When a child is baptized, the parents speak on behalf of the child in professing the faith in which the child is to be baptized. The parents promise to teach their child this faith so that they may one day accept this faith as his or her own. In the example of Simon Peter, we learn that each person must also make his or her own profession of faith in Jesus as the one sent by God to save us. We pray for our children as they mature in the faith that they may learn that Jesus alone has the words of eternal life and that they may choose to follow the way of Christian discipleship.

As you gather as a family, talk about promise that parents make at their child's baptism to teach their child about Jesus and the faith of the Church. Talk about the importance of this promise to your family and about some of the things that you are doing to try to honor this commitment. In today's Gospel we hear Simon Peter speak about what he has come to believe about Jesus. Together read today's Gospel, John 6:60-69. Pray together that each person in our family will grow in his or her faith that Jesus is the one sent by God who alone has the words of eternal life. Pray together the Apostles' Creed or the Nicene Creed.
