Catholic Ministries Appeal – Sharing Our Blessings

Our CMA appeal asks for money but it is not about money. It's about mission, the mission to bring the gospel to the world. In today's world fulfilling the mission requires money. We have received blessing and are called to share our blessings. At the end of Mass, we receive a blessing from the priest and then we are dismissed. We do this in the way we follow God's way, give of our time to help others, and through financial support of our church and charities. For our diocese, this happens through our annual CMA. The CMA has far reaching effects from supporting the ministries of the Vatican and the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops to its local support of Catholic Charities and our parish administration. You can find out more about the CMA on our parish website at <http://stmichaelsnewark.org/financial-giving/cma-appeal/>. As of October 5th, we have raised $5,571 from 38 households. If you have any questions about the Catholic Ministries Appeal please feel free to ask Fr. Jeff.

Holy Hour with Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament

We will begin with communal prayer followed by readings from the Bible and a homily by Fr. Jeff. Then we have 20-25 minutes of quiet private prayer before we conclude with Benediction. It's one hour with the Lord.

¿Cómo Vivimos Nuestro Bautismo?

¿Qué pide Dios de nosotros porque somos bautizados? Por medio del sacramento de Bautismo seguimos a Jesús. ¿Cómo lo seguimos? Descubrimos en los evangelios cómo es Jesús. Son las cualidades de Jesús en los evangelios que debemos intentar vivir en nuestras vidas. Jesús muestra compasión hacia otras personas; él toma tiempo con otras escuchándoles. Jesús visita a otras; come con otras y tiene un ministerio de la mesa. Piénselo. ¿Qué hacemos cuando estamos cenando con ellos? Es tiempo para relajarnos y empezar a conocer a todos que están alrededor de la mesa. Jesús tomaba tiempo con todos—los ricos, los pobres, los hombres, los judíos, los gentiles, los extranjeros, las prostitutas, los niños, las mujeres, los buenos, los malos, los amigos y los discípulos. Este Jesús estaba con muchos tipos de personas. Es posible ayudar a otras por tomar tiempo con ellos, por escucharles, por ser amable con ellos. Piense cómo el ayudó a la mujer que estaba al lado del pozo y a quien él podía darle agua vivo. Fue Jesús que iba con sus compañeros para pescar. Jesús salía temprano en la mañana apartándose de otras para orar.

Aceptamos la misión de Jesús como nuestra. La misión de Jesús es luchar por la vida—la vida de todos; es trabajar por el amor, la verdad, la justicia. Es defender a los débiles, los frágiles, los sufrientes, los necesitados... Seguir a Jesús es participar de su Espíritu, en una actitud de confianza plena en Dios, de amor generoso a todos, de servicio, de paz, de alegría, de libertad. Seguir a Jesús implica dejarlo todo; es una experiencia interior, una mirada madura sobre los bienes de nuestra vida humana: las cosas materiales, el alimento que tomamos, la casa que habitamos, las personas que amamos y que nos aman, también los bienes culturales. Todo esto no puede dar la vida verdadera, la del amor a Dios y a los demás, la de la confianza, la libertad, la comunión, la vida auténtica, y plena que buscamos.

¿Dónde está usted con todo esto? ¿Realmente vive como Jesús vivía? Intente imitar las acciones, los valores y las actitudes de Jesús. Es lo que un cristiano hace. Es lo que Dios desea de nosotros. Es lo que un bautizado debe hacer. Hermana Kay

FAMILY MATTERS

Today's Gospel might make us uncomfortable about our possessions. This discomfort offers us an opportunity to consider our possessions and our family's commitment to the poor. Material possessions are a necessity in our culture. Our use of these possessions and our attitude about their importance is our choice, however. It is a choice we can make with the awareness that our faith in Jesus commits us to show our care for the poor.

As you gather as a family, consider together these questions: Would it be possible to inventory our possessions? Are there things in our house that we no longer need or use? What might we do with these things? Read together today's Gospel, Mark 10:17-30. Talk about the warning about material possessions that Jesus gives in this Gospel.

How does this make you feel? Choose an action that helps your family show its commitment to the poor. Conclude by praying together the Peace Prayer of Saint Francis.

TWENTY-EIGHT SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves, "Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them, and said, "For human beings it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God." ~Mk 10:26-27
