Catholic Ministries Appeal – Sharing Our Blessings

We just passed 45.95% of our goal. A big THANK YOU to the 107 households that have contributed $20,607. Every contribution big or small is important. One of the numbers the diocese provides is the participation rate of all known Catholics in a parish. The diocesan average is 28%. Our participation rate last year was 26.8%. So, we have a little room for improvement.

For the participation rate, it doesn't matter how much you contribute, just that you contribute something because every dollar helps. You can find out more about the CMA on our parish website at <http://stmichaelsnewark.org/financial-giving/cma-appeal/>. Please remember that if we don't meet our goal, our parish pays the difference. If you have any questions about the Catholic Ministries Appeal please feel free to ask Fr. Jeff.

Deck the Halls

2018 Christmas Bazaar Saturday, December 1st

The next work bee is November 8th, 7-9 pm in the church hall. We need as many helpers as we can get. Please join the fun.

The Future of Our Parish Festival and Ideas for the Future

If you drive south from our church on South Main Street, you cannot help but notice the construction. Next year that construction will be in front of our church. The good news is that there will be new pavement, sidewalk, landscaping, and lighting. The bad news is getting to church will be a little more difficult for a few months.

After meeting with village officials and a representative from the engineering firm, it was determined that with the construction next year, we will NOT be able to have our parish festival in 2019.

We will still have our raffle and are beginning to plan for that. Without the festival, we are looking for ideas for fundraisers to help make up what the festival would have brought in. It has been difficult to come up with enough volunteers to run the festival. So, we are looking for ideas for fundraisers that do not require as many hours of volunteer. We invite you to offer ideas for fundraisers before November 19th including when to have it, how many people it might draw, and how much work it will take. You can share your ideas with Fr. Jeff at the parish office or Bob Hegeman at rhegeman@rochester.rr.com.

Advent: Preparing for the Incarnation Another Presentation by Fr. Jeff

When people hear the word "advent" in a religious setting, the first thing that often comes to mind is Christmas. "Incarnation" is the word we use to speak of how Jesus, who was and is fully divine became human just like us. We are called to go deeper and think about what the Incarnation means for us. Advent can be a time for this. We invite you to come to this presentation as Fr. Jeff helps us explore the significance of Advent and the Incarnation on Wednesday, November 28th at 7:00 p.m. in the parish hall.

Thanks to all who made Euchre Night a fun time.
Congratulations to our 5-game winners! They were Sharon Block, Bob Detric, Bob Hutteman and Rob Nevelizer.

Celebración del Día de los Muertos en México

El día de muertos en México se celebra el 2 de noviembre y es una fecha importante y de mucho júbilo. Los aztecas, los antiguos habitantes de México, empezaron esta tradición. Hoy en día se ha convertido en una celebración popular, una fiesta en honor a los difuntos. El 2 de nov. la Iglesia Católica recuerda en oración y en las misas a nuestros queridos difuntos. Muchas familias en sus casas ponen altares para invitar a los familiares difuntos a regresar a casa. Los altares tienen una belleza única adornadas con flores amarillas, sal, maíz, copal (resina aromática), vara y objetos personales de los muertos. Cada uno tiene un significado: el agua significa vida y energía para el camino, el maíz es en agradecimiento a que hubo buena cosecha, copal es el humo que simboliza el paso de la vida a la muerte, la vara libera al muerto de los malos espíritus, la sal es para que el cuerpo no se corrompa durante el viaje, pan de muerto representa el esqueleto, la fruta en homenaje a todo lo que nos brinda la naturaleza, generalmente se colocan cañas de azúcar, naranjas, tejocotes y jícamas, la cruz de cal simboliza los 4 puntos cardinales, las flores amarillas de cempasúchil representan la fuerza de la luz del sol y de la vida. Con sus pétalos se hace un camino desde la puerta de la entrada hasta el altar.

Hay dos tradiciones importantes en este día:

(1) regalar unos dulces con forma de calavera, que muchas veces incluso tienen nombres grabados (2) comer el pan de muerto que preparan en casa.

Estas calaveritas de azúcar son símbolos de que no debe temerse a la muerte.

Panes de los muertos

Ciertamente, por nuestra fe creemos en la Resurrección de los muertos y la felicidad que tenemos al estar unidos con Dios después de nuestra muerte.

Le damos gracias a Dios por todos los familiares y amigos nuestros que han muerto y ahora están viviendo en la gloria de Dios. También pedimos en oración la fortaleza por las personas que han perdido un ser querido por la muerte. Hermana Kay

New Opportunity for the Advent Giving Tree Adopt-a-Family

Some generous gift givers found it difficult to restrict themselves to one gift per tag valued between $20-25. Unfortunately, those gifts went to families with other children who did not receive equal generosity. To help accommodate those with exceedingly giving hearts, we would like to offer the Adopt-a-Family option for the 2018 Advent giving Tree. Just let Nona Kelly know how many children you would like to bless this year and she will find you an appropriate family who would love to receive your generosity. You must contact Nona at (315)398-8364 before November 17th with your desire. After that the tags will be on the tree and much more difficult to find the right family for you.

Harvest Basket

Once again the Rosary Altar Society will be selling tickets for a chance to win the annual HARVEST BASKET. The drawing will be held on November 18th. Tickets will be $1 each or 6 for $5. You can buy a ticket from any Rosary & Altar Society member or tickets are on sale after masses.

Some Common Sense in the Flu and Cold Season

As we experience the change of season from summer to fall with winter to come, please use common sense when you are not feeling well. When you are feeling ill, in the same way you might at school or work, ask yourself what you should do to avoid spreading illness. When you feel you might be ill, it is always appropriate not to shake hands at the Sign of Peace or to receive from the cup. Instead of shaking hands, it is appropriate to bow our heads to others as we say "Peace be with you."
