Catholic Ministries Appeal – Sharing Our Blessings

As of November 6th we are at $23,567 in this year's CMA for our diocese. This is $713 behind where we were last year at this time with 3 more households contributing so far. We are very grateful for those who have contributed. Your contributions help fund our diocesan support for campus ministries and Catholic Charities. Also the support the diocese gives us administratively and with our computers. If you haven't contributed yet, please prayerfully consider what you might be able to contribute. You can find out more about the CMA on our parish website at <http://stmichaelsnewark.org/financial-giving/cma-appeal>. Please remember that if we don't meet our goal, our parish pays the difference. If you have any questions about the Catholic Ministries Appeal please feel free to ask Fr. Jeff.

Wayne County Pastoral Planning October Update Proposed Mass Schedules

The members of the Wayne County Planning Team continue to work on the formation of recommendations to address the areas requested by Bishop Matano. Please visit opr.dor.org and click the "Active Pastoral Planning Groups" tab to follow all of the updates and information.

Since our last update we have received the approval of our diocesan Presbyteral Council for our clustering scenario of 2 Pastors and 2 Parochial Vicars, which clusters SKD and SMK; and also clusters CCBT, SJW, and SM.

Since then we have been evaluating ministries and needs through a review of the survey completed by 341 parishioners from across the county. The latest part of our work has been on developing a proposed Mass schedule. As you might imagine, this has been a difficult task. We are now ready to present to our parishioners three possible Mass schedules for feedback before the Planning Team makes a final recommendation. We will have three opportunities for you to hear the proposed schedules and give feedback. You need to only come to one meeting.

Tuesday, November 13th at 7:00 p.m. at St. John's in Clyde (114 Sodus St.)

Thursday, November 15th at 7:00 p.m. at St. Mary Magdalene in Wolcott (11956 Washington St)

Tuesday, November 27th at 7:00 p.m. at St. Michael's in Newark (401 S. Main St.)

It is important to know that while we are working on this schedule now, we do not know when it will be implemented. We are developing this plan now so we can spend the proper amount of time on it. Parish Abbreviations: St. Maximilian Kolbe (SMK); Community of the Blessed Trinity (CCBT); St. Katharine Drexel (SKD); St. Michael (SM); St. Joseph the Worker (SJW)

Advent: Preparing for the Incarnation Another Presentation by Fr. Jeff

When people hear the word "advent" in a religious setting, the first thing that often comes to mind is Christmas. "Incarnation" is the word we use to speak of how Jesus, who was and is fully divine became human just like us. We are called to go deeper and think about what the Incarnation means for us. Advent can be a time for this. We invite you to come to this presentation as Fr. Jeff helps us explore the significance of Advent and the Incarnation on Wednesday, November 28th at 7:00 p.m. in the parish hall.

¿Por qué Cantamos durante la Misa?

Algunas personas nunca cantan o a veces cantan. Algunas dicen que no cantan bien o que no conocen la canción. Prefieren escuchar a otras personas cantando. Quizás necesitamos tomar tiempo para reflexionar sobre el poder de la música y los dones que cantar en comunidad proveen.

Por cantar estamos diciendo que somos cristianos Católicos. En el Antiguo Testamento y el Nuevo Testamento tenemos cantos, salmos, himnos y cánticos que hace muchos años los creyentes cantaban para fortalecer su creencia y para ayudarse dispersar las buenas noticias. Muchas veces una canción puede expresar quienes somos mucho mejor que la doctrina. Piensen en el número de veces cuando durante la semana usted está cantando o tarareando un cántico de la celebración de domingo. Así se conecta con Dios.

Cantamos para unir y construir la comunidad. La música puede unir todas las edades y géneros mientras que todos cantamos un acto de alabanza o acción de gracias. La música puede sanar, reconciliarse y unir todos. Cuando intentamos cantar ante Dios, nuestra arrogancia, necedad y orgullo empiezan a desaparecerse. La oración también es dejar ir de nosotros mismos y permitir a Dios tener el poder.

El cantar mejora el rito de nuestra celebración y profundiza los momentos importantes en la liturgia como el aleluya ante del evangelio o la aclamación después del bautismo de alguien. La música puede ayudarnos estar más presentes al momento que estamos celebrando.

También cantamos para estar enviado a una misión. La música ayuda a mover a la comunidad para actuar, para dejar la pasividad y retarse a vivir mejor, a convertirse.

Ah, pero necesitamos que los miembros de la comunidad ofrezcan sus dones de música: sea tocar un instrumento o cantar para ser parte del coro que puede guiar a la asamblea en la música.

Dios desea la participación de todos. Favor de decidir que va a participar plenamente en toda la Misa—respondiendo a las oraciones, cantando y comulgando. ¡Qué bonito sería si la iglesia estuviera llena de las voces de todos que están adentro! Así es la oración y la alabanza a Dios. Hermana Kay

The Future of Our Parish Festival and Ideas for the Future

If you drive south from our church on South Main Street, you cannot help but notice the construction. Next year that construction will be in front of our church. The good news is that there will be new pavement, sidewalk, landscaping, and lighting. The bad news is getting to church will be a little more difficult for a few months.

After meeting with village officials and a representative from the engineering firm, it was determined that with the construction next year, we will NOT be able to have our parish festival in 2019.

We will still have our raffle and are beginning to plan for that. Without the festival, we are looking for ideas for fundraisers to help make up what the festival would have brought in. It has been difficult to come up with enough volunteers to run the festival. So, we are looking for ideas for fundraisers that do not require as many hours of volunteer. We invite you to offer ideas for fundraisers before November 19th including when to have it, how many people it might draw, and how much work it will take. You can share your ideas with Fr. Jeff at the parish office or Bob Hegeman at rhegeman@rochester.rr.com.
