Equal Rights for Farmworkers

You can be a voice for justice TODAY. In the words of the NYS Catholic Conference, "There is no legitimate reason for treating farmworkers inequitably." Today you can support justice for the farmworkers by signing our Diocese-wide petition to our state elected officials in favor of the Farmworkers Fair Labor Practices Act. This bill would give tens of thousands of farmworkers in our state equal labor rights. Put your faith into action. Stand with them and take the time to sign the petition (in the gathering space).

Amor, Amor, Amor; Dios Es Amor;
Ama a Todos como Hermanos

Dejen que Dios habite en ustedes. Si sea así, entonces Dios va a actuar a través de ustedes. Sean misericordiosos como Dios es misericordioso. Tener esta compasión significa sentir con los sentimientos del otro, emocionarse con el que emociona, llorar con el que llora; esto sale desde adentro, no de la mente y reflexión. Es la expresión del amor del Padre que perdona a su hijo solamente porque es su hijo. Es una misericordia sin límites. Puede ser que somos nosotros que ponemos límites a la misericordia de Dios. ¿Si Dios nos perdona, porque no podemos perdonar a otros?

Jesús nos pide amar de la misma manera que Dios ama—gratuitamente. Ah, ¿pero amar a nuestros enemigos? Pensamos que es pedir de nosotros demasiado. Amar a mi cónyuge que es toda comprensión, amabilidad y servicialidad es fácil, o ser amable con mis compañeros de trabajo que son simpáticos no es difícil, pero amar a esa persona que siempre está contradiciéndome o trabaja muy poco cuando debemos trabajar juntos, eso es difícil. Es fácil tratar respetuosamente a quienes nos tratan con respeto, pero la persona que me falta respeto o me ignora, podemos decir que es muy difícil amarlo. Eso es amar a los enemigos; eso es el amor de Dios—amando a todos a pesar de cómo son o cómo actúan. No importa si no vamos a recibir ninguna cosa del otro. Los amamos porque Dios los ama, y vamos a amar como Dios ama. De a poco ellos no van a seguir siendo enemigos. De a poco vamos a conocerlos y saber por qué actúan así.

Dios nos pide amar a nuestros enemigos; teniendo confianza en Dios, no vamos a pensar en nosotros mismos sino en la otra persona. Vamos a escucharle. ¿Qué necesita? ¿Cómo vamos a ayudarlo? ¿Cómo vamos a ser misericordioso? ¿Vamos a poner la otra persona y sus necesidades ante de las nuestras? ¿Vamos a olvidar el mal que la otra ha hecho a nosotros? ¿Estamos preparados a perder nuestra vida y nuestros deseos para ganar la vida?

Ah, tenemos que escuchar las inspiraciones del Espíritu Santo para poder realizar en nuestras vidas diarias la voluntad de Dios. Oren para poder abrirse a la acción de Dios en sus vidas.

Hermana Kay

FAMILY MINISTRY

It is easy to choose to be with others when they are acting politely and respectfully. But children do not always act this way, especially with other family members. We can probably all recall a family meal in which such behavior was not observed. Yet we probably chose to sit through the meal anyway. We regularly give our children second chances—and often third and fourth chances—hoping that our generosity will be rewarded. That is how God acts with us. The ethic that Jesus describes seems like an impossible task: to give when asked and to do good to those who hate us. Yet family life is filled with opportunities to act generously and to love without measure. This is what we parents try to do every day. This is what we ask our children to learn. We are reminded that when we love generously and gratuitously, we love as God loves us. This is the meaning of mercy.

As you gather as a family, identify some things that family members are expected to do each day (prepare meals, go to school or work; complete homework assignments, complete household chores, behave appropriately at school, at work and at home; and so on). Discuss whether it is easy to live up to these expectations. Why or why not? Then discuss the meaning of the phrase “go the extra mile” and what it would mean to go the extra mile in the expectations you identified. Introduce today’s Gospel: In today’s Gospel reading, Jesus describes how we are to act toward one another. What he says may sound like what we mean by the phrase “going the extra mile.” Read aloud today’s Gospel, Luke 6:27-38. Discuss whether the actions Jesus describes are easy and consider why we might act in these ways if they seem difficult. Observe that today’s Gospel challenges us to make choices based on God’s standard; God loves us all the time by going the extra mile for us. During a time of quiet reflection, invite each family member to choose an action for the week in which he or she will go the “extra mile” for the family. Conclude in prayer by praying together St. Ignatius’s Prayer for Generosity.

Dear Friends,

Thank you for continuing to collaborate with us on the St. Pauly Textile clothing drop off shed project! In 2018 roughly 34,747 garments of clothing were donated to your shed. This was enough to clothe an estimated 4212 people. The clothing is being used right now by people in one or more of 44 different countries (including the US) to which our clothing is likely to have been distributed this past year.

Your organization raised $2,125.50 in 2018 through hosting the shed.

We ask that you continue to spread the word about the clothing shed to other community members. Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

The Team at St. Pauly Textile, Inc.

St. Michael Parish Men’s Retreat

“Our Spiritual Journey” will be the theme for 2019. Each retreat will be filled with scripture stories, prayer experiences, and the Retreat Team’s sharing of God’s guidance along their own journey.

This year’s Men’s Retreat for St. Michael parish and other area parishes will be held March 1-3. Please note that while the pricing for room & board for the weekend range from $120-$200 depending on the size of the room you choose, they are just suggested donations. The policy is that the price should never deter anyone from attending a retreat—donate whatever is affordable. The basic time frame for the weekend is 8 pm Friday evening through Sunday noon. You should get your room assignment by 7:30 pm on Friday. To register or to get more information, please call,
