June Holy Hour with Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament

Do you want to spend some time with the Lord but finding it hard to do at home because of distractions? Our monthly holy hours can be a great opportunity to have some quiet time with Jesus. We began our monthly hours for our Year of the Eucharist. This year has drawn to our close but we will be continuing our holy hours going forward on the third Wednesday of each month at 6:00 p.m. We begin with communal prayer followed by readings from the Bible and a homily by Fr. Jeff. Then we have 20-25 minutes of quiet private prayer before we conclude with Benediction. It's one hour with the Lord. We hope you will join us this month on Wednesday, June 20th at 6:00 p.m.

The Wayne County Pastoral Planning Team has been working diligently over the last 5 months. To assist our planning team all adult parishioners are being asked to complete a survey of ministries by the end of June 2018. To access this survey you may go to: <http://www.surveymonkey.com/r/WayneCountyParishes> OR opr.dor.org

1. Click Active Pastoral Planning Groups
2. Scroll down and click "Wayne County Pastoral Planning Information"
3. Click on the line that says "Click here to take the Parish Ministries Survey"

Thank you for taking the time to complete this 63 question survey. Your responses will help our parishes ensure that the Catholic mission of Word, Worship, Community and Service continues in a vibrant way under the constraints of priest availability, demographics, and financial resources.

Your input will allow the planning team to understand which ministries are most important to parishioners and where the focus should be for improvement. The compiled results of this survey will be shared with parishioners in the coming months.

If you do not have accessibility to the online survey you may complete the survey on paper. You may pick one up in the parish office or ask before or after mass and we will be glad to get one to you.

Your Pastoral Planning Team Members,
Father Jeff Tunnichoff, Pastor June Sherman, Pastoral Associate
Gary Pierce, Finance Director Carmella Owen, Pastoral Council
Martha Hegeman, Finance Council

Special Meeting to Discuss the Proposed Scenarios Tuesday, June 19, 2018 at 6:30 pm In the Church Hall

We recently included an insert in the bulletin about the proposed scenarios for our regional planning to promote collaboration between our parishes in Wayne County and to move from five priests to four. We would like to hear your comments and questions. This Tuesday, June 19th we will gather in the church hall to hear your questions and comments. Please join us as we plan for the future of Catholic ministry in Wayne County!

Padres de Familia Aman y Guían

Hoy es un día especial para los padres de familia—los que tienen hijos, nietos y bisnietos. Recientemente yo estaba hablando con alguien sobre cómo su padre actuaba en la casa—que él no levantaba la voz en casa. Al pensarlo, no recuerdo un tiempo cuando mi propio padre levantó la voz. Pero he estado en casa ajena cuando el padre estaba gritando a sus hijos. La voz usada así no enseña al hijo cómo actuar con otros. Son los padres que supuestamente deben enseñar a sus hijos por palabra y acción cómo actuar. El padre no debe dominar; tiene que respetar al hijo y no aplastarlo con gritos. La persona aplastada no va a prestar atención a la voz del otro cuyo pie está encima de uno.

Siendo un padre no es fácil porque se necesita mucha paciencia y gracia. El padre no es un dictador ni un jefe. El padre debe estar al lado de su esposa para compartir todo: las alegrías, los dolores, el trabajo difícil, la esperanza, el amor y una fe firme. El está presente en el hogar junto a su esposa tomando parte en las vidas de sus hijos—cuando los hijos juegan, estudian, cuando están tristes, alegres, miedosos, cuando han salido del buen camino y cuando han vuelto al camino derecho. El padre no controla a sus hijos; eso quita de los hijos el oxígeno necesario para desarrollarse como individuos únicos. Los hijos deben desarrollarse individualmente con sus propios talentos; los hijos no son copias de sus padres.

Al disciplinar a sus hijos, el padre no debe degradar a sus hijos, ni debe permitir a sus hijos hacer lo que quieren. El padre que ama a sus hijos necesita ser firme en corregir al hijo, manteniendo su dignidad y la del hijo, y a la vez necesita esperar con paciencia los cambios en los hijos. Los hijos van a aprender mucho por las acciones de sus padres. Padres, que construyan en sus casas hogares de paz, que respeten a sus esposas y a sus hijos para que haya una comunicación libre y un ambiente donde cada miembro de la familia puede abrirse, ser acogido y apreciado sin juicios, presiones y desprecios. Respeten la dignidad y el valor de cada uno. Muestren su amor y afecto hacia los hijos.

Acuérdense siempre a orar para formar una relación íntima con Dios para que Dios les ayude en su propia vida y oren para poder tener los dones necesarios para guiar bien a sus hijos. Para fomentar la paz en la familia hay que invitar a Dios para que sea la base de su familia. Padres, no se olviden que Dios también es su compañero en amar, guiar y transmitir tu fe y valores a sus hijos. Compartan en familia la oración como familia, la Palabra de Dios, y la Eucaristía cada domingo. Gracias por aceptar el regalo de ser padre de familia y por la responsabilidad que es incluida en eso.

Hermana Kay

Family Ministry

Church documents call the Christian family the "domestic church." This is both a compliment and a call to commitment. Because the family is a community formed in love and dedicated to the physical and spiritual growth of its members, it is a miniature version of the Kingdom of God on earth. This Sunday's Gospel Reading, Mark 4:26-34, consists of two parables that Jesus used to help us discern the mystery of the Kingdom of God. The beginning of the kingdom is compared to a tiny seed that over time matures and ripens. Many of the things we do within the family seem insignificant. They are part of our daily activity and attract little attention. Yet they show our love and concern for one another. According to the Gospel, it's these small things that yield big results, acting as significant contributions to the growth of God's kingdom on earth. The growth of the seed illustrates the nature and the results of a strong faith. Read aloud together the Gospel of Mark 4:26-34. Consider how your family's concerns reflect the Church's concerns for those members who are poor, forgotten, hungry, ill, shunned, or lonely. Together think of a specific action that you can do to assist a person in your extended family, neighborhood, or parish. Now pray together the Lord's Prayer, pausing briefly to consider the import of the words "thy kingdom come." Each evening this week as you gather for supper, share with one another the simple acts of love you witnessed within the family that day.

Greg Sheldon was with us this past week securing advertisers for our weekly bulletin. We would like to thank all the advertisers who have renewed their ads for the upcoming year and also thank all the new advertisers who have generously committed to the bulletin for this year. If you're interested in sponsoring an ad for your business or on behalf of your favorite charity/organization, there is still time. Please contact Greg at the phone number on the back of the bulletin.

As a reminder, we ask that all of our parishioners patronize these advertisers whenever possible. It is their generosity that provides the weekly bulletin at little or no cost to our parish. Please use the bulletin as a resource whenever you are in need of products or services. Let them know we truly appreciate their loyal support of our weekly bulletin.
