Alimentate de Vida para Vivir Plenamente

¿Cuáles cosas en tu vida te alimentan física, espiritual, y psicológicamente? ¿Qué es lo que te da vida y energía? Puede ser que es comer tu comida favorita, sea empanada de res, fajita de pollo, frijoles, arroz con camarones, etc. Comiéndola lentamente se puede saborearla y apreciarla y eso te ayuda a detenerte, conversar y gozar el momento, haciendo posible la relajación. No hay nada malo en gustar comer—hay que gozar todo lo que Dios nos ha dado. Pero sería bueno agradecer a Dios por la comida y la persona que la ha preparado.

Espiritualmente la celebración Eucarística es un regalo tremendo. Dios Jesucristo mismo nos da su Cuerpo y su Sangre. Sacramentalmente Cristo entra a nosotros, y podemos sentir la fuerza y la presencia tan especial de Cristo con nosotros. Si Dios está con nosotros, ¿quién puede estar contra nosotros? Podemos enfrentar el día y todo lo que nos trae.

Ah, otra manera de alimentarte es salir para encontrar a Dios en su creación—en la belleza de la naturaleza. Camina, párate, mira y en silencio absorbe todo lo que está a tu alrededor. Dios Creador está presente, por eso grita desde muy adentro tu agradecimiento por lo bonito de todo a tu alrededor; Dios está presente.

Relaciones de amistad son otra manera de alimentarte para sentirte fuerte, amado, entendido y relajado. Tan importante es tener un amigo con quien puedes pasar tiempo y en quien puedes confiar, compartiendo tus penas y alegrías, tus creencias y dudas, tus deseos y metas.

Sé bueno a ti mismo y alimentate generosamente durante este tiempo de verano. Hermana Kay

Family Ministry

Parents may sympathize with the disciples' protests when Jesus asks Philip where food might be found for the crowd. In the responses of both Philip and Andrew, we hear feelings of inadequacy as they survey their limited resources in the face of such great need. We may sometimes share these feelings about our own material possessions or our emotional and spiritual resources in the face of our family's needs. This is a Gospel of hope for these times, which are all too frequent in parenting and family life. As Jesus made the five barley loaves and two fish sufficient to more than meet the needs of over five thousand people, Jesus will also work with what we have to provide for our family's needs. When we offer our efforts to God, we ask him to transform them so that they will be more than adequate to the tasks and needs before us. As you gather as a family, talk together about the things that your family needs, starting with the basics—food, shelter, safety, and so on. Continue by naming other things that a family needs to be happy and healthy—time together, cooperation, patience, and so on. Observe that sometimes we can feel like we don't have enough of the things that we need or want. Read together today's Gospel, John 6:1-15. Talk about how Jesus provided plenty of food for the crowd with just five barley loaves and two fish. We have faith that Jesus will also take what we have and make it enough to satisfy and fill all our needs. We ask for this blessing when we offer to God the work of each day in prayer in the Morning Offering. Pray together the Morning Offering, asking God to bless and make fruitful the work of each of our days.

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. ~ Jn 6:9-11

The Lighter Side

A priest, an evangelist, and a minister were in a row boat in the middle of a pond fishing. None of them had caught anything all morning.

After a while, the evangelist stood up and said he needed to go to the bathroom. So he climbed out of the boat and walked on the water to shore. He came back ten minutes later the same way.

Then the minister decided he needed to go to the bathroom, too. He climbed out of the boat and walked on the water to shore. He, too, came back the same way ten minutes later.

The priest looked at both of them and decided that his faith was just as strong as his fishing buddies and that he could walk on water, too. He stood up and excused himself. As he stepped out, he made a big splash down into the water.

The evangelist looked at the minister and said, "I suppose we should have told him where the rocks were."

"Special Thanks to E-Givers"

St. Michael's would like to thank the 31 families who are currently giving electronically. You may not see these fellow parishioners place an envelope in the basket every week, but their consistent giving does not go unnoticed in our parish office. Each month our parish receives a steady and predictable stream of income from those donors who have made the commitment to give to God first by having a designated contribution automatically transferred to our parish through our Online Giving Program. If you like to learn more about this easy, safe and secure way of giving, you will find a link labelled "Online Giving" under the "Financial Giving" tab on our website, stmichaelsnewark.org or simply go to <https://stmichaelsnewark.weshareonline.org>.
