DECEMBER 1, 2024

The season of Advent breaks us out of Ordinary Time to experience something new... a new habit, a new outlook on life, etc. But for most of us, Advent is nothing new, we've done this every single year. So what gives? Remember how you learned the importance of the Eucharist? In 2nd grade you were taught that when you received the blessed bread and wine at Mass you were really receiving

Jesus. Then in a later grade, you learned about "transubstantiation," the term we use for the miracle of changing bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Jesus. Fast forward to maybe high school or college when you learned that the Eucharist was the "source and summit of the Christian life"- that all Christian activity flows from it and all things return to it.

In the same way, we experience Advent. It's not new because we haven't experienced it before. It's not new because it's changed, but because we have changed. We are not the same as we were last year or the year before. We have a year full of new and different experiences- deeper joys, deeper sorrows, a deeper understanding of ourselves and perhaps even a deeper understanding of God. Advent reminds us to seek renewal; not new stuff (as this season is often noted) but a new year with new understandings and new insights. We once again prepare to celebrate the breaking into history of the eternal and the manifestation of Heaven on Earth in the form of an innocent baby. Over the next 4 weeks stay with this...How does God want to renew me this year through this mystery?

Praised be Lord Jesus Christ!
 Fr. Felicjan
