JANUARY 19, 2025

The wedding feast of Cana presented to us in the gospel of John is rich in meaning, as it reveals both the relationship of Mary and Jesus, as well as Jesus’ response to his mother. In the time and culture of Jesus, a wedding was a significant event that could last for several days. Running out of wine would be a major embarrassment to those hosting the wedding. Mary recognizes the problem and brings it to Jesus’ attention in a pithy declaration: “They have no wine” Jesus responds with “woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come” Mary does not tell Jesus what to do or how to do it. She simply states the need, fully trusting in his response to her words. Jesus in his generosity and love for his mother and the Groom and the Bride provides quality and abundant wine for the wedding celebration to avoid embarrassment and shame. John tells us that this is the first sign Jesus performed and he did this to reveal his glory to his disciples. Jesus’ first miracle or sign taking place in the context of a wedding feast speaks to us about the importance of Marriage and its role in God’s plan. It also reveals to us that when God is present in our vocations and other areas of our lives, we experience his abundant blessings but if we leave him out of our lives, we are bound to fail. Sadly, there are people who insist that it is their marriage, their life, their happiness and their right to seek it however and wherever it may be found. Rather than turning to the Lord for help, they rely on themselves, and inevitably, they run out of wine. Let us be reminded that “Unless the Lord builds the house, they labor in vain who build it” (Psalm 127).
Fr. Sylvester.

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

We are all the servants at Cana. Each of us, at various times, finds ourselves confused and unsure, empty where we should be full, unprepared where we should be ready. When we falter, Mary's words give us direction: "Do whatever he tells you."

"Darkness cannot drive out darkness, only light can do that. Hate cannot drive out hate, only love can do that."

SOCIAL MINISTRY 2024 YEAR AT A GLANCE
Monies donated to our CCBT Social Ministry through Parishioner envelopes have been a blessing to families in our local area over the past year. We assisted with RGE, rent, and a security deposit. A $500 donation was made to the Red Creek Community Food Pantry, Wolcott Presbyterian Church Food Pantry, and the Migrant Ministry. Sheets, blankets, and towels were purchased for distribution at the Wolcott Community Clothing Center. This holiday season we adopted 2 families each from the North-Rose Wolcott and Red Creek Central School Districts, as well as one Family Promise family. In addition, we are grateful for the overwhelming support of the Advent Giving Tree, Backpack Collection, Care Net Baby Bottle Campaign, Health and Hygiene Drive, and Operation Rice Bowl. Our group of meal warriors provided meals and dined with Family Promise families on a quarterly basis. Words cannot express the gratitude we feel for your support of our Social Ministry. We are truly blessed! If you have any questions, would like to be a part of our team, or know of a family in need, please do not hesitate to contact Pam AuClair (315-529-2742) or Marie Smith (315-591-1051)

Baptism

For the next several weeks we will be exploring and reflecting on the Sacrament of Baptism. The word baptism means "plunging." At our baptism we plunge into the death and resurrection of Christ. Jesus called his death and resurrection a baptism: "There is a baptism with which I must be baptized, and how great is my anguish until it is accomplished!" (Luke 12:50). This is the double action of our redemption: Christ going down into the grave for our sins and rising again, glorious, triumphant, immortal. Through baptism, Christians are united with his saving death and life-giving resurrection. St. Paul emphasized that baptism is the beginning of a vital union with the risen Lord. The old sinful self passes away to be born anew and conformed to Christ. This week I ask you to open up your Bibles at home. Read the following passages and reflect on what they say about being buried with Christ, dying to sin, and rising to new life in Christ: Romans 6:4, Romans 6:9-11 and Romans 6:6-7. We will continue with the Sacrament of Baptism next week. Wishing everyone a happy and safe week. Fr.Felicjan
