Live The Liturgy

Inspiration of the Week

Jesus is desperately hungry when the devil tells him to turn stone into bread. But his divine will is stronger than the weakness of his human body, and he resists the devil. In this season of fasting and self-denial, let's remember Jesus' strength.

Devotions, Explained!

Christians have been making the sign of the cross since ancient times. It is not only an important component of formal liturgies and sacramental rites, but also a daily devotional practice whereby the faithful invoke the blessing and protection of God.

LENTEN DISCIPLINES OF FASTING & ABSTINENCE

Catholics in good health ages 18 to 59 are required to fast and to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

Fasting consists of eating only one meal, with the possibility of two smaller snacks that do not add up to a single full meal.

Catholics age 14 and older are to abstain from meat on all Fridays in Lent.

Let's us conclude our reflection on the Sacrament of Baptism today. The New Testament refers to entire households being baptized - and the Greek word for "household" includes everyone from infant to the oldest members of the family (see Acts 16:33; 1 Corinthians 1:16). By the second century, St. Irenaeus considers it a matter of course that infants and small children, as well as adults, should be baptized. The Church considers Jesus' invitation to baptism to be of universal and limitless love, which applies to children as well as to adults. "To fulfill the true meaning of the sacrament, children must later be formed in the faith in which they have been baptized...so that they may ultimately accept for themselves the faith in which they have been baptized." (Rite of Baptism for Children). Baptism confers the character of Christ; it gives the baptized person a share in Christ's life and entrance into His faith community. That's why we must be baptized before we can celebrate any other sacraments. Baptism is the beginning. The person who is brought to the baptismal font and is baptized, emerges from the waters a "new creation" with new life. This new life is the Holy Spirit making a home in us and giving us the power to know God and fulfill his plan for our lives. "Whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come." (2 Corinthians 5:17)

Have a wonderful Lent - Easter
