Holy Week is the most important week in Catholicism. This week of great reverence and reflection spans the final eight days of Jesus' life—from Palm Sunday to Easter Sunday. It is astounding how much wisdom, insight and inspiration are available to us during this one week. Here is just a sample of what happens during Holy Week.

- ⇒ Palm Sunday, Jesus triumphantly enters Jerusalem.
- ⇒ Monday of Holy Week, Jesus clears out the temple with a whip.
- ⇒ Tuesday of the Holy Week, Jesus is anointed with oil at Bethany and preaches on the Mount of Olives.
- ⇒ Spy Wednesday, Jesus is betrayed by Judas.
- ⇒ Holy Thursday, Jesus celebrates the Last supper, prays in the Garden of Gethsemane, and is arrested.
- ⇒ Good Friday, Jesus is sentenced to death, scourged, beaten, crucified, and dies on the Cross.
- ⇒ Holy Saturday, Jesus is buried in the tomb and descends into hell.
- ⇒ Easter Sunday, Jesus rises from the dead.

Beloved in Christ, may this Holy Week be for us a time of silence and deep reflection on the paschal mystery of Christ and may we journey with the Lord in a state of Holiness. Fr. Sylvester.

Palm Sunday

It was during the fourth century in Jerusalem that Christians first starting using palm branches in commemoration of Jesus' entrance into Jerusalem. Today, we continue to use palms in most churches on this Sunday, Catholic and Protestant alike. It is one of those traditions of worship that, no matter how far apart we may seem at times, we continue to share due to our common heritage.

But Palm Sunday is also known as Passion Sunday, because we hear an account of the passion of Jesus Christ during the liturgy. Most churches also share this reading in common. Many Catholic parishes use multiple lectors to proclaim the Gospel, while it is not uncommon for a similar reading or even a performance in many mainstream Protestant churches.

The commonality found in the worship on this particular Sunday seems to highlight the fundamental truth in the observance: Jesus Christ died for everyone. He did not die on a cross for just Catholics, or just Orthodox, or just Protestants. Whether one acknowledges it or not, he was crucified for all those who are born of man. Today, we rejoice not just for what he has done for us but also for what he has done for all of creation.

Live The Liturgy
Inspiration of the Week

The disciples followed Jesus' careful instructions for his entry to Jerusalem, even though they did not understand his words. Today, we too, look ahead to his arrival. In obedience, let us prepare the way for the King.
